Footlight Theatre To Close Curtain On 'Our Town'

Footlight Theatre will close the curtain on its production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" following two performances at the Crenshaw School, 18620 Crenshaw Blvd., this weekend.

Performances will be held tomorrow and Saturday with the curtain going up at 8:30 p.m. Reservations or information may be obtained at DA 9-5338.

The play, depicting the every day lives of people in 1901, uses center staging.

to discuss programs of the community colleges. Among the issues to be discussed are faculty recruitment, guidance, federal legislation, engineering, and other subjects of concern to the two-year colleges.

The association, which represents both private and public colleges, has grown from 34 members to its present 600-member institutions. During the past decade, said Dr. Marsee, community colleges have been established at the rate of 20 to 25 each year.

CALIFORNIA, a pioneer in the development of the two-year college, now has 72 institutions, said Dr. Marsee. He added that Florida has established 29 community colleges in the past few years.

In commenting on the growth of the two-year community college, Dr. Marsee said factors such as increasing student population, changes in technology and the resultant demand for trained personnel in industry have resulted in the growth of junior colleges throughout the nation.

"Civic, education, business, and government leaders in many parts of the country are turning to the community college to help meet these demands and assume a greater share of the educational obligations of the nation," said Dr. Marsee.

DR. MARSEE, president of the college for the past five and one-half years, has been active in planning the convention with other members of the association's board.

Governor Terry Sanford of North Carolina will deliver the keynote address at the opening general session of the four-day conference.

Burns in the eye, whether caused by flame or chemicals, should be flooded with water immediately for approximately 15 minutes. Eye burns should be examined by a physician as soon as possible.

Will Hold Realtors Conference

A nationally recognized authority on sales training will be the featured speaker April 2 at an all-day real estate education and sales conference under the co-sponsorship of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors.

Garden Checklist

1. By the end of this week you should cut back your geraniums, pelargoniums and fuchsias. Loosen the soil around them and when you see signs of new growth, start watering and feeding.
2. Feeding camellias is a post-bloom item. Liquid fish, an acid-type fertilizer, or one of the balanced commercial fertilizers and iron chelates are all used with success.
3. Why not try gardenias in a warm, protected spot? The big kind whose blooms you see the florist selling is gardenia jasminoides and is fairly hardy. However, its smaller cousin, gardenia jasminoides var. radicans, with smaller but equally fragrant flowers, will take more of a beating and come up laughing.
4. Check now with your nurseryman on crabgrass control. Don't wait. Get into action now before seeds germinate.

nix, Ariz., will be the featured speaker at the Airport Marina Hotel where the conference will be conducted by the local boards in conjunction with the California Real Estate Assn. (CREA). According to CREA board president Del Wright, Edwards' business recording, "Closing the Sale," is the top selling training record in the country.

Wright adds. Wright says that five California realtors will appear on the conference program to talk on fundamentals of listing, advertising and selling real estate. The emphasis will be on single family homes and small apartment houses.

The moderator for the all-day conference will be Tom Kiernan, chairman of the CREA Education Committee. Reservations for the conference may be made through the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors at DA 6-3010.
